

Liaison 1

1 October 1954

Maj. Gen. George W. Read, Jr.
Commandant, The Armored School
Fort Knox, Kentucky

Dear General Read:

STATINTL

The Director of Central Intelligence is pleased to approve your request of 21 September 1954 that [REDACTED] address the Armored School on "The Mission, Scope and Responsibilities of the Central Intelligence Agency." By copy of this letter [REDACTED] is being notified of this action and is being informed that you will deal with him directly in working out all details connected with his appearance on your program.

STATINTL

Your desire to include a presentation on intelligence in the regular curriculum of the Armored School is a most encouraging indication of your conviction on the close relationship between intelligence and operations.

Sincerely,

MB

MATTHEW BAIRD
Director of Training
